Charitable Organizations We Support

Since so many of the charitable dollars flowing through our area are dedicated to strictly religious support, here is a partial list of groups that secular organizations can support. Be secure in the knowledge that these efforts are made to provide for human welfare only. Tampa Bay Harvest, ACLU, NOW, Planned Parenthood, Museum of Science and Industry - Tampa, St Petersburg and Tampa Museums of Fine Art., Goodwill Industries, Nature Conservancy, and more.... to a new era in the life of our Community of Reason. This newsletter is a result of a number of Tampa Bay area member organization's search for ways to more effectively address the issues we all face as we meet the future of our region, our country, and the world. We are not endowed with large treasuries or corporate sponsors. We are rich in the enthusiasm and hard work of our members. We welcome you to participate in the many events and programs you will find here and invent new ones.

Welcome!

Freethought is a philosophical approach that holds reliable knowledge should be formed on the basis of science, logic, and reason, and should not be based on authority, tradition, or unsubstantiated dogma. Freethought is the product of various individuals and organizations advocating a logically disciplined and coherent view of the physical universe and human experience. It strongly supports creative, innovative thinking. The Tampa Bay chapter of the United Coalition of Reason is part of a national effort to bring together such allied groups in an effort to lift the intellectual life of the nation to a higher, more rational level of conversation. Organizations holding this worldview are invited to join the coalition, where unity provides both strength and opportunity.

The organizations you will find here are dedicated to different parts of the puzzle of life and all have slightly different, but for the most part compatible, approaches to the great questions. On the calendar, you will find many opportunities to discover these approaches and to apply them to outline the realities of your world in a useful way. Feel free to write to us, or to any of the listed groups with your suggestions, critiques, ideas, and questions. Thinking will not make you rich, thin, happy, or successful, but it will be of considerable aid in becoming a more effective citizen of our world. JP

CoR Leadership Team 2012

Mark Brandt, Rob Byrch, Rick O'Keefe, Jim Peterson

Unified events planned across multi organizational lines.

Coalition members are working to bring great new programs and common speakers to our area. Already efforts are being made to design activities and observances of the birthday of Charles Darwin. By joining our efforts and treasury, we may be able to bring a national level speaker to be the center point of our program around February 12 of 2013. We can't say who it is yet, but you'll be delighted when you find out!

We welcome more organizations to join this Coalition

Need Psychological Counseling? For a secular therapist, see: <https://www.therapistproject.org/index.php>

People ask,

“What is CFI-Tampa Bay?”

A good and thorough answer is found on our Web site, <http://CenterForInquiry.net/Tampa>. This will help: The mission of the Center for Inquiry is to foster a secular society based on science, reason, freedom of inquiry and humanist values. CFI-TB is a local branch of the premier worldwide Secular Humanist and Skeptics association based in Amherst (Buffalo), NY, founded by Paul Kurtz.

Our all-volunteer branch promotes lectures in cooperation with other like-minded associations, has several area socials monthly, participates in civic events promoting our mission, and supports fact-based education for all ages, and especially politicians.

Our success in building the growth of Freethought and inter-association cooperation depends upon paid and active memberships. Let me ask you, if you aren't a paid member of your favorite association, what can the rest of us think? If you can go to meetings, why won't you volunteer to help? Why not have some fun while doing good?

CFI Challenges Indiana's Religious Privilege in Solemnizing Marriages

The Center for Inquiry (CFI) filed a complaint in the United States District Court challenging an Indiana law that privileges religious institutions in the solemnizing of marriages. Indiana code 31-11-6-1 specifies that marriages in Indiana may be solemnized only by a small number of secular elected officials and a large number of clergy or other persons associated with religious organizations.

CFI, a national organization advocating on behalf of science and secular values, believes the law is unconstitutional on the grounds that it allows all manner of religious leaders to celebrate marriages, and allows persons of faith to be married by religious leaders of their choice, while denying these opportunities to persons who desire a nonreligious celebration by a Secular Celebrant. This represents a preference for religion over non-religion in violation of the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment, and denies rights secured by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

“I have had many couples contact me over the years who are not religious and are seeking someone to solemnize their marriage who represents their life stance,” said Reba Boyd Wooden, Co-Director of the Secular Celebrant program for Center for Inquiry and Executive Director of Center for Inquiry-Indiana. “Some are religious but simply do not want a religious wedding. Some have family of different religions, and want a secular wedding to avoid conflicts. Indiana couples should have this option.”

Center for Inquiry established a program to train Secular Celebrants in December 2009. Currently there are 23 Secular Celebrants who have been trained and certified by CFI. Eight are from Indiana and others hail from 10 other states and the District of Columbia. However, since Center for Inquiry is not a religious organization, these Secular Celebrants cannot solemnize marriages in Indiana or any place in the United States under this certification alone.

Join us for our annual Social Issues Conference.

The rate of change is rapidly accelerating in our world. The changes are sometimes dramatic and often threatening to the values we support. But it is nonetheless the order of the day.

We ourselves are about change after all. We consider that those changes we propose will act to the benefit of humanity. And this is an opportunity for us to raise new questions to consider and submit for adoption as an expression of our social policy objectives.

During this discussion, let's keep in mind that we are a 501c3 group, and thus can neither recommend or denounce candidates, or political parties per se. But ideas, cultural preferences, trends, laws, regulations, and policies are all fair game for analysis and criticism.

This is your hour to vent; your time to shine. You may propose any statement you want for the group's consideration. If the majority of paid members present give it the thumbs up after discussion, then it becomes part of our announced policy positions. The AHA already has a number of policy positions covering a great many general concerns, and it may be more effective to focus on local concerns. So let's think of the priorities that most effect the people of our area.

As Humanists, it is our announced intention to be ombudsmen for the promotion of human well being. Taking part and even initiating discussions of the problems around us are a large measure of our responsibility as Humanists to be advocates for greater good of the people of our own community.

Get creative! Join in.

Remember... we meet in the Countryside Library at

Food: the first kindness. Humanists aspire to true friendship with our fellow human beings. An important measure of this is concern for the physical needs of others.

Volunteer !

If we are truly to make a difference in an often indifferent world, we will have to constantly renew our efforts.

Even if you have an active work and family life, there are always opportunities in ways large and small to be a leader in helping to right the world, to heal its wounds, and to create a place fit for gentle people to inhabit.

Nor is retirement the end of activity, but the beginning of putting your energy and efforts into the things that truly matter.

If you think that the basic philosophical outlook of Humanism can make a major contribution to human well being at all levels, it is time to join us as a volunteer to put your beliefs to work.

Contribute to the welfare of our own local chapter by leading efforts to bridge gaps, bring tolerance and social unity, and exercise kindness everywhere. A little financial help is always appreciated as well. Start by renewing your membership!

At a recent board meeting, we made plans to participate with an information table at a major public event in the coming year.

We are putting together a Speakers Bureau for outreach. You can help in many ways.

And we need help in setting up our meetings: chairs, electronic components when needed, literature and food collection tables. See a Board member to offer your help. JP

Humanists work to build a world in which happiness is the enduring criterion of social policy.

What is the Humanist Way?

1. To extend a human centered approach to the critical problems of life and society.
2. To encourage attitudes of kindness, compassion, tolerance and a loving generosity in human relationships, and in our treatment of all life. These attitudes help us to see ourselves in the lives of others and encourage appreciation for the remarkable diversity of human culture and experience.
3. To develop and popularize the skills of creative and critical thinking that empower people to challenge prejudice, superstition and irrationality in every area of life. Such empowerment enables the individual to reach the highest levels of achievement.
4. To exalt those artistic and imaginative expressions of life which have been the source of the greatest pleasure and enlightenment, and which reflect compelling human truths. Through music, literature, art, dance, and other expressions, we embrace the essence of the human spirit.
5. To explore the grounds of ethics and morality within the unfolding history of our evolving culture. Such knowledge will enable us to become effective protagonists for the happiness of the individual person. JP

"There is no humanist creed, no set of beliefs to which every humanist has to subscribe. Humanism is not a dogma or a sect...as human beings we can find from our own resources the shared moral values which we need in order to live together, and the means to create meaningful and fulfilling lives for ourselves."

John Keiffer:

Atheist on Trial

Polk County has relented. Local prosecutors decided after over a year of threats, to back down on all but one charge. His supposed crime was that he talked and walked around before the meeting of the Polk School board. His real transgression consisted of not paying proper deference to a local minister leading prayers at this secular government meeting.

It seems likely that John will not now serve any jail time for this, but he has lost over 40 thousand dollars trying to defend himself.

This execrable action summons the outrage of all people who hold a high regard for a truly secular and fair government.

FLORIDA REPORT

Civil liberties news in the Sunshine State

Dear ACLU Supporters,

They are just relentless.

Corporations and government agencies are trying to use their influence to get carte-blanche access to our private data.

And if we let CISPAA — the Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act — become law, that's exactly what they'll get — nearly complete access to everything we do online.

Urge your senators to vote NO on CISPAA and any other legislation that would let the military collect our private internet records.

CISPAA already passed the House. But if we don't take a stand in the Senate, companies could soon have access to share our sensitive and private information with military agencies, including the National Security Agency.

CISPAA effectively allows them to gain access to our personal information without a warrant, without oversight, and without limits, and the Senate may soon vote on proposals that go just as far.

Those are rules we can't live by. We deserve better privacy laws. And we demand a better bill than CISPAA.

We need to make our voices heard: Tell your senators that you oppose any legislation that would allow the military to use personal information to spy on Americans.

Located in Tampa, Florida, the THA brings together humanists and non-theists of all stripes together toward the cause of progressive social change. We are a new organization, incorporated as a 501(C3), Not-For-Profit Corporation under the laws of the state of Florida. We have recently filed to become a charter member of the American Humanist Association, headquartered in Washington, DC. AHA, with their extensive local and national media contacts, their lobbying and coalition efforts on Capitol Hill and the efforts of our grassroots activists, will ensure that the humanist point of view is represented in the halls of power, down on Main Street, and everywhere in-between. THA participates in AHA's annual conference which draws hundreds of humanists from across the U.S. to hear world-renowned speakers, connect with fellow non-theists and have a say in the future of the organization. Through our Charter Membership with AHA, we work alongside other national organizations in the community of reason, and also reach out to our progressive allies to work on issues of common concern. Working with our sister organization, the Humanist Society of the Suncoast and the Tampa Branch of Center for Inquiry and other organizations within the United Coalition of Reason, it is THA's intention to enlarge the voice of humanism within the Tampa Bay region.

For several years now, various leaders of the freethought community in the bay area have been meeting informally to share experiences, and occasionally to coordinate plans. But recently, changing circumstances have brought additional pressure to cooperate in bringing programs and members services to an expanding movement. At this point leaders continue to meet, and together with the various boards of directors and committees, try to develop policies that will enable every group to enhance its unique role in serving its members. There appears to be general agreement on developing several community wide programs over the year that will allow significant speakers to be presented in our area. The costs of these programs will be shared among the organizations proportionally.

Thus substantive and exciting new activities will be offered to the Tampa Bay area that were not possible for most organizations before. We are especially grateful to the national office of the United Coalition of Reason and its director, Fred Edwards. You may recall that UCoR was the major impetus to getting a large number of billboards erected across the nation with such messages as "You can be good without God. Millions are!"

TBCoR is not a membership organizations, but an alliance of groups identified with the Humanist /Atheist movement.

As this momentum continues to grow, we will keep you informed of developments and problems. JP

TBPCC is an autonomous adjunct to the Humanist Society. In February of 2012, council members presented a course on Post Carbon issues at the University of South Florida. We showed that there are likely to be dramatic changes in the way we live in the intermediate future.

If current trends continue . . .

- The population of the United States will increase to over 600 million by 2080, and in 2150 it will equal China's present size.
- World population will achieve 14 billion by the year 2075 and 30 billion by 2150.
- By 2030 China will be absorbing all available global oil exports, leaving none for the US or Europe.
- China's economy will surpass the size of the present global economy before 2050.
- In 2072, the federal debt will amount to $896 trillion, or $1,629,091 for each American (assuming a US population then of 550 million).
- Thanks to the doubling of US households living on less than $2 per person per day between 1996 and 2011, in 150 years there will be about 1.5 billion Americans living on practically no income.
- The number of billionaires in the world (having grown from 793 to 1210 in just two years, from 2009 to 2011) will equal the world population in only 70 years. (Given the previous trend, this is especially gratifying news: since the rate of growth in the number of billionaires in the world exceeds the rate of growth in extreme poverty in the US, this means each American will become a billionaire before his or her grandchildren plunge into desperate poverty).

...If current trends continue! Will they? The points above are true, but an invitation to skepticism. Don't be manipulated by statistics, but do be aware of the significant problems to which they point.

We invite you to become a member of the Council, and make a difference in the quality of our lives. Click below for more:

Humanist Books from the AHA

One Planet One People by Carl Coon Hardcover 149 pp $22.

By Carl Coon, Former Ambassador to Nepal In this succinct, highly readable overview of the evolution of human society, the author argues that the 21st century will witness a crucially important and difficult transition for the human race. Blending the disciplines of anthropology and evolutionary psychology with over thirty years of experience in the diplomatic corps, Coon traces the evolution of the human tendency to divide others into two groups, "us versus them." Today, he argues, we have reached a stage where the whole world must be viewed as "us," for only a united world community can cope with today's global challenges.

The Philosophy of Humanism - Corliss Lamont

Clearwater UU Humanists

We are a group of Unitarian Universalists committed to a humanistic and non-theistic worldview. Currently, meetings are scheduled once a month and are usually held on the third Sunday of most months from 12.30 pm to 1:30 pm, after UU services. The UU Humanists are open to all aspects of humanism, including investigation of religious humanism. However, the focus of the group is on the secular aspects of humanism. Programs have been well received with attendance between 50 and 75 individuals. To learn more about the group, please contact:

Clearwater, Florida

*Florida
Now*

<http://www.flnow.org/>

NOW is a multi-issue political organization. NOW's self-defined role has been to initiate change for the benefit of the greatest number of people, to affect the legal and institutional structures of the society in a way that systematically expands the choices and possibilities available to all women. In this way, NOW takes action to bring women, as a class, into the mainstream of society, rather than offering aid to individual women in achieving personal solutions or temporary relief from oppression.

The Florida National Organization for Women (NOW) is in strong opposition to the Personhood Amendment ballot initiative for which the organization Personhood Florida is currently collecting signatures, according to Florida NOW president Donna Slutiak. "This amendment is ridiculous and an insult to women," Slutiak said. "The issue of Personhood would have very far reaching results, and would do more than criminalize abortion; it would also make birth control pills and the IUD illegal in the state of Florida. The amendment states that human life begins at the time when an egg is fertilized, which will also impact in-vitro-fertilization clinics. How would you like your mother's fertilized eggs that are sitting in a clinic freezer to have inheritance rights? Do you want to have to go underground to get your birth control pills?"

Florida NOW expects all intelligent people to pledge not to sign this initiative, and to vote against it, if by some fluke it does get on the ballot. Personhood is bad for womanhood.

A Tradition of Advocacy

For Religious Liberty

Americans United for Separation of Church & State
~ Pinellas County Chapter ~

For more information, see: <http://www.au.org/>
The Chapter meets at Good Samaritan Church located at 6085 Park Blvd, Pinellas Park (61st St.). The next meeting is September 10, at 7:00 PM. We are working for the defeat of Amendment 8, the so called Freedom of Religion Amendment. It allows tax payer funds to support religious schools & organizations. Also, we will be contacting local churches to remind them of the legal dos and don'ts concerning pulpit electioneering.

The Military Association of Atheists and Freethinkers

Nontheistic service members serve honorably throughout the world—always have; always will. However, nontheists are the last unprotected minority. The nontheistic, whether an atheist, humanist, agnostic, freethinker, or other secular minority, have a strong community. Jason Torpy, a West Point graduate, serves as president of MAAF. He also holds seats on the boards of the Secular Coalition for America and the American Humanist Association.

Humanist Families of Greater Tampa

Jennifer Hancock started this organization several years ago. It uniquely serves Humanist families with a variety of wonderful programs throughout the year. There is a strong emphasis on creative childrearing. Here, you can make connection with other families dealing with the problems of living in a society that is still hostile to an explicitly Humanist Way of life.

Jennifer is author of several books including; The Humanist Handbook, The Humanist Approach to Happiness, and her latest book, The Bully Vaccine (illustration below).

Humanist Families organizes social outings every month. These are opportunities to do something fun, socialize and enjoy each other's company. Sometimes we go to a park, sometimes a museum, sometimes we go swimming. Our group has grown over the past year to the point we now organize Tampa area outings and Manatee/Sarasota area outings every month.

Throughout the year we host parties like Darwin Day in February, World Humanist Day in June, Freethought Day at Disney in October and Carl Sagan Day in November.

Among our spin off groups, is a Parenting Beyond Belief group which gets together to discuss the challenges of raising children without religion.

We are on Facebook at:

Living Life as a Humanist

Being a moral person isn't about the big good vs. evil decisions. Those are easy to make. The real challenge of moral living is doing the right thing when the stakes are low. In other words, a moral person does the right thing because it's the right thing to do and not just because it's convenient. Moral people don't do the right thing to make themselves look good, though that is obviously a benefit. They do the right thing because they understand they are responsible for their actions and they find value and pride in doing their part, however small, to make the world a slightly better place.

AoF outreach programs are currently in hiatus, pending resolution of legal matters regarding our media And Meetup sites. A copy of the April 2012 newsletter is available by writing to: AthAIFLE@aol.com.

Look for exciting new programs in the offing very soon. We are a resource for those with questions and doubts about the standard religious narrative of life. We affirm the positive values of a rigorously logical and scientific approach to the problems of life.

At the same time, we bring a human centered ethic to bear in serving our fellow human beings as they struggle to overcome the delusional psychology of years of religious conditioning.

As an institution committed to bring the enormously prolific benefits of the atheist proposition to ever larger numbers of our citizens, we desire to enable an enlightened majority of truly free people to turn their intelligence toward the real problems we all must face.

AoF has been a leader in the effort to preserve church state separation. We look forward to serving a growing constituency.

Vote on Paycheck Fairness Act Coming Soon!

For the next 48 hours ISHV is joining forces with organizations across the country to turn up the heat on the Senate in support of equal pay.

What's the rush?

We expect a vote on the Paycheck Fairness Act in the coming weeks. Our senators need to hear from us now. For the next 48 hours (starting right now and throughout today and Wednesday), we want to jam the phones to send a clear message of support for the Paycheck Fairness Act.

When asked how Humanists can change the culture we say, "Participate in your government by letting your representatives know what we stand for Equality for all."

This is your time to do so! Vote on Paycheck Fairness Act Coming Soon!

For the next 48 hours ISHV is joining forces with organizations across the country to turn up the heat on the Senate in support of equal pay.

Here's all you have to do:

- 1) Dial 1-888-876-9527. Listen for instructions on how to connect to your senator's office.
- 2) Listen to the sample script and follow the instructions for connecting to your senator's office.
- 3) Don't neglect your other senator. Call back and make sure she/he gets a call too!
- 4) Double your impact by forwarding this message to a friend.

Why is this important?

The Paycheck Fairness Act would deter wage discrimination by updating the nearly 50-year-old Equal Pay Act and barring retaliation against workers who disclose their own wages to coworkers. It's hard to believe, but no federal law broadly prohibits employers from penalizing or even firing employees just for talking about their salaries.

Remember Lilly Ledbetter? She was told on her first day of work at Goodyear to never discuss her salary with anyone. It wasn't until she found an anonymous note in her locker that Lilly realized that she was being paid as much as 40 percent less than her male colleagues in the same position. This is exactly why these pay secrecy policies that punish employees and help hide discrimination need to go!

Every call counts! The more calls, the more pressure, the better the results. Please take action today by calling 1-888-876-9527.

Thanks for all you do for half the humans on the planet!
